Judicial Officer
James E. Towery

Right to Cancel Hearing: Information for the Person in ①

- If item ④ a(2) or ④ a(3) is checked, the judge has denied some or all of the temporary orders you requested until the court hearing. The judge may make the orders you want after the court hearing. You can keep the hearing date, or you can cancel your request for orders so there is no court hearing.
- If you want to cancel the hearing, use form DV-112, Waiver of Hearing on Denied Request for Temporary Restraining Order. Fill it out and file it with the court as soon as possible. You may file a new request for orders, on the same or different facts, at a later time.
- If you cancel the hearing, do not serve the documents listed in item ⑥ on the other person.
- If you want to keep the hearing date, you must have all of the documents listed in item ⑥ served on the other person within the time listed in item ⑥.
- At the hearing, the judge will consider whether denial of any requested orders will jeopardize your safety and the safety of children for whom you are requesting custody or visitation.
- You must come to the hearing if you want the judge to make restraining orders or continue any orders already made. If you cancel the hearing or do not come to the hearing, any restraining orders made on form DV-110 will end on the date of the hearing.

To the Person in 1:

- The court cannot make the restraining orders after the court hearing unless the person in (2) has been personally given (served) a copy of your request and any temporary orders. To show that the person in (2) has been served, the person who served the forms must fill out a proof of service form. Form DV-200, Proof of Personal Service, may be used.
- For information about service, read form DV-200-INFO, What Is "Proof of Personal Service"?
- If you are unable to serve the person in (2) in time, you may ask for more time to serve the documents. Read form DV-115-INFO, How to Ask for a New Hearing Date.

To the Person in 2:

- If you want to respond in writing, mail a copy of your completed form DV-120, Response to Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order, to the person in (1) and file it with the court. You cannot mail form DV-120 yourself. Someone age 18 or older—not you—must do it.
- To show that the person in (1) has been served by mail, the person who mailed the form must fill out a proof of service form. Form DV-250, Proof of Service by Mail, may be used. File the completed form with the court before the hearing and bring a copy with you to the hearing.
- For information about responding to a restraining order and filing your answer, read form DV-120-INFO, How Can I Respond to a Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order?
- Whether or not you respond in writing, go to the hearing if you want the judge to hear from you before making an order. You may tell the judge why you agree or disagree with the order requested. You may bring witnesses and other evidence.
- At the hearing, the judge may make restraining orders against you that could last up to five years.
- The judge may also make other orders about your children, child support, spousal support, money, and property and may order you to turn in or sell any firearms that you own or possess.

Request for Accommodations

Assistive listening systems, computer-assisted real-time captioning, or sign language interpreter services are available if you ask at least five days before the hearing. Contact the clerk's office or go to www.courts.ca.gov/forms for Request for Accommodations by Persons with Disabilities and Response (form MC-410). (Civ. Code, § 54.8.)

(Clerk will fill out this part.)

This is a Court Order

Temporary Restraining Order
(CLETS—TRO)
(Domestic Violence Prevention)

DV-110, Page 1 of 7

This order must be enforced throughout the United States. See page 5.

To the Person in ②

The judge has granted temporary orders. See items ⑤ through ⑯.

- If you do not obey these orders, you can be charged with a crime, go to jail or prison, and/or pay a fine.
- It is a felony to take or hide a child in violation of this order.

5 No Guns, Other Firearms, or Ammunition

- You cannot own, possess, have, buy or try to buy, receive or try to receive, or in any other way get guns, other firearms, or ammunition.
- Within 24 hours of receiving this order, you must sell to or store with a licensed gun dealer, or turn in to a law enforcement agency, any guns or other firearms you have in your immediate possession or control.
- Within 48 hours of receiving this order, you must file a receipt with the court that proves guns have been turned in or sold. (You may use form DV-800, Proof of Firearms Turned In, Sold, or Stored, for the receipt.)

The court has received information that you own or possess firearm(s) or ammunition.

6 Cannot Look for Protected People

You must not take any action to look for any person protected by this order, including their addresses or locations.

If checked, this order was not granted because the judge found good cause not to make the order.

7 Order to Not Abuse

Not requested Denied until the hearing Granted as follows:

You must not do the following things to the person in ① and any person listed in ③:

- Harass, attack, strike, threaten, assault (sexually or otherwise), hit, follow, stalk, molest, destroy personal property, keep under surveillance, impersonate (on the internet, electronically, or otherwise), block movements, annoy by phone or other electronic means (including repeatedly contact), or disturb the peace.
- "Disturb the peace" means to destroy someone's mental or emotional calm. This can be done directly or indirectly, such as through someone else. This can also be done in any way, such as by phone, over text, or online. Disturbing the peace includes coercive control.
- "Coercive control" means a number of acts that unreasonably limit the free will and individual rights of any person protected by this restraining order. Examples include isolating them from friends, relatives, or other support; keeping them from food or basic needs; controlling or keeping track of them, including their movements, contacts, actions, money, or access to services; and making them do something by force, threat, or intimidation, including threats based on actual or suspected immigration status.

This is a Court Order.

Judge or Judicial Officer

Certificate of Compliance With VAWA

This temporary protective order meets all "full faith and credit" requirements of the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. § 2265 (1994) (VAWA), upon notice of the restrained person. This court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter; the restrained person has been or will be afforded notice and a timely opportunity to be heard as provided by the laws of this jurisdiction. This order is valid and entitled to enforcement in each jurisdiction throughout the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, all tribal lands, and all U.S. territories, commonwealths, and possessions and shall be enforced as if it were an order of that jurisdiction.

This is a Court Order.

Warnings and Notices to the Restrained Person in ②Your Address to Receive Court Orders

If the judge makes a restraining order at the hearing (court date), which has the same orders as in this Temporary Restraining Order, you will get a copy of that order by mail at your last known address, which is written in ② on page 1. If your address was not listed on this form or is incorrect, contact the court. If you did not go to your court date and want to know if the judge granted a restraining order against you, contact the court.

Child Custody, Visitation, and Support

- Child custody and visitation: If you do not go to your hearing (court date), the judge can make custody and visitation orders for your children without hearing from you.
- Child support: The judge can order child support based on the income of both parents. The judge can also have that support taken directly from a parent's paycheck. Child support can be a lot of money, and usually you have to pay until the child is age 18. File and serve form FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration, or form FL-155, Financial Statement (Simplified), if you want the judge to have information about your finances. Otherwise, the court may make support orders without hearing from you.
- Spousal support: File and serve form FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration, so the judge will have information about your finances. Otherwise, the court may make support orders without hearing from you.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

This order is effective when made. It is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS). If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing, the agency shall advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then shall enforce it. Violations of this order are subject to criminal penalties.

Arrest Required if Order Is Violated

If an officer has probable cause to believe that the restrained person had notice of the order and has disobeyed the order, the officer must arrest the restrained person. (Penal Code, §§ 836(c)(1), 13701(b).) A violation of the order may be a violation of Penal Code section 166 or 273.6.

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, the orders remain in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The orders can be changed only by another court order. (Penal Code, §13710(b).)

This is a Court Order.

Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued protecting the protected person from the restrained person, the orders must be enforced according to the following priorities (see Penal Code, § 136.2, and Family Code, §§ 6383(h), 6405(b)):

1. EPO: If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001), and it is more restrictive than other restraining or protective orders, it has precedence in enforcement over all other orders.
2. No-Contact Order: If there is no EPO, a no-contact order that is included in a restraining or protective order has precedence in enforcement over any other restraining or protective order.
3. Criminal Order: If none of the orders includes a no-contact order, a domestic violence protective order issued in a criminal case takes precedence in enforcement over any conflicting civil court order. Any nonconflicting terms of the civil restraining order remain in effect and enforceable.
4. Family, Juvenile, or Civil Order: If more than one family, juvenile, or other civil restraining or protective order has been issued, the one that was issued last must be enforced.

Child Custody and Visitation

- The custody and visitation orders are on form DV-140. They are sometimes also written on additional pages or referenced in DV-140 or other orders that are not part of the restraining order.
- At items 8b(1) or 9b(1) of this order, the judge may allow the person in ② to have brief and peaceful contact with the person in ①, as needed to follow court-ordered visits. Conduct of the person in ② that is not brief and peaceful is a violation of this order.
- Forms DV-100 and DV-105 are not orders. Do not enforce them.

DECLARATION ATTACHMENT TO REQUEST FOR RESTRAINING ORDER

I, Hanna Mars, requesting party herein, testify truthfully to the facts stated herein.

1. I am seeking a domestic violence restraining order against my husband Kostiantyn Mars (hereinafter "Kostiantyn"). I was married to Kostiantyn Mars (hereinafter Kostiantyn) on June 5, 2015. As a result of our marriage, we have one wonderful child together, Maksym - age 6 (DOB:11/23/2015).
2. I was three months pregnant when we married, after I had known Kostiantyn for approximately seven months. Things were OK until Maksym was born. After Maksym was born I rarely saw Kostiantyn as we slept in separate rooms where I cared for our baby and during the day Kostiantyn was at work. We only occasionally had dinner together and Kostiantyn was not caring, but his behavior was not abusive as it later became.
3. When Maksym turned about age one, my husband started to become abusive toward and controlling of me. For the short periods of time he was at home, he constantly disparaged me telling me I was a bad wife, and I didn't know how to keep the house in order. He would go around the home and tell me that I failed to put items back in their proper place. All the time he would disparage me and tell me that I was stupid, dumb, that I was worth nothing. He also started calling me a bitch when yelling at me. This behavior continued after we moved to the United States in May of 2019. Kostiantyn told me that this move was best for our son.
4. We lived in the Los Angeles area for about one year and then moved to the Bay Area in October of 2020. Things remained about the same with Kostiantyn disparaging me and calling me names; however, the frequency with which it occurred increased. We had a one bedroom apartment. Kostiantyn took over the one bedroom and used it as his office to work from home. Maksym and I slept in the living room. We rarely saw Kostiantyn except for dinner and sometimes on weekends. My job was helping Maksym with online school and keeping him quiet or taking him outside of our house because if there was noise, Kostiantyn would start yelling at me in front of our child about the noise.
5. Things really escalated in January of 2022 and again in June of 2022 when Kostiantyn brought his 94 year old grandmother over from Ukraine. Since January of 2022, Kostiantyn has been threatening me with regard to our son and my immigration status. Kostiantyn also started physically and emotionally injuring our son Maksym, then age six. From January until September when I began to intervene and try to keep Maksym away from his father, Kostiantyn would spank Maksym telling me and Maksym that "it educates him." On multiple occasions Kostiantyn would grab Maksym so he couldn't get away from him, pull down his pants and underwear and smack him on his bottom hard three to five times leaving red marks which would last for at least one hour. I was afraid of Kostiantyn, but after months of this behavior, I would try to talk to Maksym and remove him from the situation before it escalated. Prior to that, when I tried to intervene, Kostiantyn would yell at me, grab my hand and tell me that “I was preventing him from raising his son and it was necessary for Maksym or he otherwise wouldn’t understand and he would “behave like a girl.” Kostiantyn would then threaten to take Maksym away from me telling me that “I am a softie with him.” I was afraid of Kostiantyn so I didn’t call the police. I just kept trying to intervene and protect my son and myself. If I told Kostiantyn that I would call the police, he would tell me, “what do you think you will say to the police. You don’t speak the language.” He would then continue to threaten that he would take Maksym from me.

6. Also since January of 2022, Kostiantyn has been hiding important legal documents from me such as Maksym’ birth certificate, our marriage certificate, and our son’s green card and Ukrainian passport. I am very concerned about his hiding Maksym’ documents in light of his threatening to take Maksym from me.

7. Around mid-July of this year, Kostiantyn went through the necessary process to obtain his and Maksym’ green cards. Although we filled out paperwork, I don’t think Kostiantyn filed the documents necessary for my green card as I still haven’t received mine. As part of the process of obtaining Maksym’ green card, Maksym needed to be vaccinated. One of those vaccines was Hepatitis A vaccine which is given in two doses the second of which is at least six months from the first. When we took Maksym to the CVS to get his second dose, Kostiantyn told the pharmacist that it was OK for Maksym to get his second dose and that it has been six months since the first dose. He lied however, as he was in a hurry to get Maksym’ green card. I told the pharmacist it has been only four months and he refused to give Maksym the vaccine that day.

8. Kostiantyn was angry that I told the pharmacist the truth and threatened me and told me “If you screw up the green card process for our son, I will make you return to Ukraine and you will never see Maksym again.” Before going to the pharmacy, I told Kostiantyn that the first dose of vaccination was enough to get a green card, but he did not listen. After we left the CVS pharmacy, Kostiantyn again put me down in front of Maksym, yelling at me and threatening me saying, “You are a stupid fool idiot, because of you Maksym may not get a green card, why are you getting involved in this with your stupid words? “You are nobody without me and it depends on me whether you stay in America or not.” Kostiantyn then said to Maksym that I was a bad mother and I did not love him. Maksym began to cry and I asked Kostiantyn not to yell and say these things to our child. Kostiantyn just yelled at me and continued to scream and humiliate me in front of our son.

9. In August and September, Kostiantyn just started doing things to make my caring for Maksym difficult or trying to move me out of his and Maksym’s life. On August 17, 2022, Kostiantyn took the child car seat from the car which I was driving and said that he will now keep the car seat in his car and he will determine whether I can use it or not. A little later, my husband said that he will stop giving me the car seat because he will take our son where he needs to go and he does not need to go anywhere with me. He then told me ~~he~~ could buy my own car seat after our divorce. Since we lived in the Ukraine everytime Kostiantyn was unhappy about something with me, he would tell me, "We will divorce, just not right now."

10. On September 1, 2022, Kostiantyn forced me under duress and coercion to sign a document removing me from the lease for our apartment. Exhibit "B." He told me that if I didn't sign this lease amendment, he would take our son from me and cancel my green card process. I was very scared and so I signed the lease amendment. This was done after he sent a misleading text message to our apartment landlord telling them that he wanted me off the lease and that I should have no keys to our mailbox. Exhibit "A." Kostiantyn had stated telling me for about one month prior to this that I needed to find my own apartment, and threatening me that I should not add our son's name to any lease I enter into because our son will live with only him. He gave until this Friday, September 16, 2022 to leave our apartment. This is difficult for me as I don't speak English well and I don't have a job that pays enough for me to pay for an apartment of my own. I work about 15 hours per week and gross about $2,400 per month. I am a UX designer, but I have only 6 months part-time experience in the U.S. and although I have looked for full-time work, all employers tell me that they are looking for someone with more experience.

11. On September 4, 2022, Kostiantyn disparaged me in front of our son again. He told our son that "your mom keeps you starving and she is not a good mother." Our son was upset and told his father that I had just fed him. Kostiantyn did not stop and kept telling our son bad things bout me. On September 9, 2022, Kostiantyn told me to "voluntarily" sign a lease where I would exclude our son from the lease" as "our son cannot live with me." Kostiantyn threatened me, "if you include our son on the lease, I will take away your parental rights and stop your green card process." I don't know if Kostiantyn even started the process as I am the only only family member without a green card still.

12. Since we have lived in the U.S., Kostiantyn has hid all financial information from me. He never allows me to see his pay stubs, our tax returns or bank statements - any document that would indicate how much he earns. Even with the tax return, he would just bring me the signature page and tell me to sign. He would never let me review it.

13. More recently, on September 13, 2022, Kostiantyn called my parents and told my father, "if she doesn't sign a lease agreement with th apartment for herself before September 16, 2022 and leave, I will do everything to send her to Ukraine and she will never see our son. Maksym should not be included in her apartment. You will never see your grandchild ever again."

14. Over the past year with Kostiantyn's behavior and what he says to our son, Maksym has been very concerned and often cries. Maksym will take my hand and say, "Mom, I want you to always be there, Dad says that you will go to a psychiatric hospital." I then hug my son and tell him I will always be here for him and never leave him. I am very concerned for Maksym and myself with Kostiantyn's controlling and threatening behavior. I have always been Maksym's primary parent, both in the Ukraine and in the U.S. Kostiantyn spent very little time with Maksym working most of the time. He is now using Maksym as a control device such that if I don't do what he wants, he will take Maksym from me. He continues to try to convince Maksym that I am a bad mother and do not care for him. This is so detrimental to Maksym.

15. I am requesting a restraining order against Kostiantyn protecting both me and Maksym. I am requesting full legal and physical custody of Maksym and I will need child and spousal support until I can find a full-time job. As Kostiantyn took the keys to the 2014 Volkswagen Tiguan that I had been driving. Kostiantyn drives our other car, a 2022 Hyundai so he has the use of a vehicle. He just took the second car away from me to be spiteful. I ask that the court award me the exclusive use of the Tiguan. I also ask that I be allowed to stay in the apartment in which we currently live and that Kostiantyn be ordered to immediately vacate the property. As I have very little income, I am also asking that my husband pay me $10,000 so that I can retain an attorney to represent me in this matter.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

INSTRUCTIONS

For more information please refer to Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara Local Rules 5 A & B and California State Rules, Rules 5.151, 5.165, 5.167, and 5.170.

This form is required in Santa Clara County, if you are asking the Judge to make immediate orders (also known as emergency or ex parte orders) without the other party being present for a hearing. This form must be completed in any case where ex parte orders or emergency orders are requested. If you are required to give notice, notice must be given before 10:00 a.m. on the court day before the Judge reviews the application, or the application will be delayed another 24 hours. Notice means providing the other side of the case, either all other attorneys or any self-represented party, with copies of any papers that you want the Judge to review and any orders that you are requesting. If you have given notice to the other side of your case, you must state the form of notice given. If you ask the Court to not require notice, you must explain why. Sometimes notice is not required, such as cases involving allegations of domestic violence or where the safety of a party or a child might be at risk if notice is given. It is up to the Judge in your case to determine whether notice will be required or not.

SECTION #1

State whether you are the Petitioner or the Respondent in the case. Once a case is filed, the parties keep the same status in the case. You do not change from the Respondent to the Petitioner by filing a new motion in the case. If you do not have an attorney, you are considered self-represented.

SECTION #2

If any other party is represented by an attorney, you must provide the Court with the attorney's name and address. If the other party is not represented by an attorney, you must provide the Court with the other party's address.

SECTION #3

It is very important to list all other cases in which you and the other party have been involved with the courts. This would include other Family Law, Probate, Juvenile, Restraining Order, Child Support, Civil, or Criminal matters. If you do not have the case number, please put "unknown" and list the county and the year of the filing, if possible.

SECTION #5a.

Unless notice is excused by the Court, you must provide notice of this application to all other parties and attorneys before you deliver a copy to the Court. When you give such notice, specify how you did it (by fax, courier, or personally, for example), who received it and at what time and on which date. Also, please explain how you know that the other side received copies of your papers and what response you were given.

SECTION #5c.

If you believe that you should not be required to give notice of this application and are asking the Court not to require notice, explain why in this section. Check as many boxes as apply. You must also write out any further explanation of your reasons for not giving notice or provide a separate declaration.

After this form is completed, attach it to your application or motion and submit them to the Court Specialist's Office at the Family Court Facility where you are dropping off your paperwork for review.
